CHILD'S SHOULDEI

When Four Months Old. Clothing Irritated. Restless and Fretful. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Eczema Was Gone.

Lincolnville, Me.— My little girl was about four months old when I first began to notice little white blisters just below her shoulder. It began to become worse and the blisters seemed to break and run to gether. When they broke it would make a raw sore and then she would have terrible crying spells. The blisters filled with water. She was not old enough to scratch herself but when I rubbed it she would stop crying and keep perfectly quiet. Her clothing seemed to irritate it and she would be restless and fretful. She also had a real scurvy

"I was told it was eczema and I tried everything but it did no good. One day a friend of mine told me to get a cake of Cuticura Sonp and box of Cuticura Ointment. It was not a week before I noticed she was much better. If she began to cry I would undress her and put Cuticura Ointment on her chost which would stop her crying at once. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment six weeks and the eczema was gone. She has never been bothered since." (Signed) Mrs. A. C. Haslam, Jan. 31, 1914.

A cordial invitation is extended to friends in North Bennington to attend the dance which is to be given by the Parent-Teachers association tomorrow evening in Foresters hall from 8 until 12 o'clock. Tickets at 75 cents may be purchased at the door.

Mrs. Ida Vose Woodbury, who comes to the Congregational church on Sunday morning and evening, will pour a flood of light on the "Race Question" and its Christian solution She is a most remarkable speaker. In the union evening service at 7 o' clock she will probably relate some personal experiences. Every loyal patriot should be there.

The second number of the entertain ment course will be given on Mon day evening, Nov. 9, at Bank hall. The entertainer will be Harrell, the musical magician. Mr. Harrell has been on the stage for about ten years and comes highly endorsed as an entertainer. The magician usually confines his work to magic but Mr. Ha: rell is a musician as well and presents many musical attractions such as Swiss Bells. Saxophone, Musical Glasses, Papiergraphy, etc. He appears in oriental costume, showing the character of oriental magic. One of his cleverest acts is that of escaping, while handcuffed, from canvas mail bag bolted and locked Everybody should see Harrell.

CHURCH CONSECRATION

Exercises for All Saints Memorial at Burlington

The consecration of the new Church of All Saints, on South Willard street, Burlington, given by L. C. Clark and his family as a memorial to the late Marian DeForest Clark is wife, was consecrated with impressive services, Sunday, All Saints' day, by the Rt. Rev. Arthur C. A. Hall, in the presence of a congregation that filled the building. The service was held at 11 o'colck, and the Rev. Dr. George Y. Bliss. rector of St. Paul's, the Rev. Charles C. Wilson, and the Rev. C. P. Abbott participated. The full vested choir from St. Paul's church sang.

The vested choir formed outside the main entrance to the church. Bishop Hall rapped three times upon the closed door with his pastoral staff and the door was opened by the senior warden, Joseph T. Stearns. The wardens and the vestrymen, J. T. Stearns, M. D. Chittenden, H. H. Wheeler A. E. Clement, A. B. Kingsland, Dr. J. D. Tanner, Dr. Lyman Allen, Gen. C. P. Miller, and Prof. J. L. Hills, led the procession to the chancel steps and the bishop and clergy entered the sanctuary. As the procession moved up the aisle the bishop and clergy repeated the twen ty-fourth Psalm.

The instrument of donation was read by Mr. Stearns, and handed by him to Birhop Hall, who then proceeded to the sentences and prayers of consecration, after which the act of consecration was read by Doctor Bliss, rector of the parish. He handed the act of consecration to Bishop

Hall, who laid it on the allar. Morning service followed the service of consecration. Doctor Bliss reading the lessons and the Rev. Mr. Wilson the Psalms.

Bishop Hall preached an inspiring sermon

The bishop celebrated holy communion, assisted by Doctor Bluss. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock there was evensong, conducted by Doctor Bliss and the Rev. Mr. Wilson, and another large congregation filled the building. Services are to be held regularly Sunday mornings at 9 o'clock with Sunday-school at 2.45 and evening prayer and sermon at 4 o'clock. The building, which was designed by Wendell P. Blaggden of New York is of fourteenth century Gothic architecture. It consists of a nave without aisles and a chancel. A transept at the north gives rooms for the choir and clergy. The open truss roof is of cypress. A conspicuous feature of the building is the great west window of stone tracery, which will altimately be filled with stained glass. A permanent altar and reredos are also to be placed in the building at some future time. The altar from the chapel of the Holy Spirit is being used temporarily. The church will be ministered to by the clergy of the parish, in the charge of

Doctor Bliss, rector of St. Paul's. The corner stone was laid Sunday afternoon, July 5, by Miss Mary Clark daughter of Mrs. Marion DeForest
